BURNED OUT WORKING FROM HOME?
HERE’S HOW TO COPE:

For many of us working from home hasn’t quite been the dream we thought it would be. Juggling work and home life, exchanging face to face interaction for Zoom calls; it has taken a toll on many. For more information on how to cope check out the article below.

“When you can’t control what’s happening, challenge yourself to control the way you are responding to what’s happening. That’s where the power is”

TRAUMA INFORMED SCHOOLS

Check out the Trauma-Informed Educators Network Podcast, focused on applying the 6 principles of compassionate, trauma informed schools.

https://soundcloud.com/mathew-portell-93233744/episode-14-dr-eric-rossen

For the latest info on resources go to: https://www.ok.gov/odmhsas.org find the box labeled COVID-19 info
In the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic, we are continuing to rely on each other to help our families feel supported. With that said; as we continue pulling together, we invite everyone interested to participate in the scheduled weekly support calls below to ensure that we continue to educate ourselves for the overall benefit of the families we serve.

Behavioral Health Aide: (every) Monday at 11am

Zoom meeting ID: 806-328-977

Family Support Providers: (every) Tuesday at 10am

Zoom meeting ID: 392-979-560

Care Coordinator: (every) Tuesday at 1pm

Zoom meeting ID: 194-885-980

Projector Director: (every other) Wednesday at 9am

Youth and Young Adult Support Calls for Providers: (every) Thursday at 2pm

Zoom meeting ID: 289-583-378

This call is meant to be a conversation for youth/young adult providers to share challenges and successes during this time of social distancing. Providers can hear from other providers on skills and stories that have helped them cope and be successful during this time. Resources will also be shared. The call will be facilitated by Christine Cao and Clifford Sipes both work at the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services as Youth Coordinator and Youth Specialist. If availability permits there may be youth/young adults who will join on the call to share their experiences and input.

Youth & Young Adult Support Calls: (every) Friday at 1pm

Zoom meeting ID: 237-508-199

This is a weekly support call. It is meant to be a conversation for youth to share challenges and successes during social distancing. Youth can hear from other youth on how they have been coping during this pandemic and other stressful times. Resources will also be shared. The call is not meant to replace therapy though it can be therapeutic. Youth are invited to attend and invited to just sit and listen. The call will be facilitated by Christine Cao, Clifford Sipes, and youth from the Youth State Advisory.

Caregiver Support Calls: (every) Friday at 10:00am & Saturday at 9:00am

Zoom Meeting ID: 913-2866-5197

Password: hope

Call in only: +1 346 248 7799

This is for caregivers across Oklahoma, this call is to provide peer to peer support during this time of changes and social distancing.